

This progression of skills and assessment document has been designed specifically for our school to show how we progress all of the relevant Historical knowledge and key learning across the year groups. This progression of skills document along with the curriculum map has been used to construct the school's History Long-Term Plan, and teachers use that to inform the part of the curriculum they are teaching. Teachers will use this document at the end of the year to assess if children are meeting expectations for History for their year group.
