

'Let your light shine!'

Our Christian Value this half term is Love

Friday 7th December 2018

Christmas is definitely in the air in school at the moment. Decorations are up, nativities are almost ready to perform and the Fun night preparations are in full swing. Our Elf day today has been very special. It is lovely to see how much effort everyone goes to with their costumes.

I have had a message this afternoon to say that Father Christmas is on the way to school for our Fun night tonight. Come along between 6pm and 8pm to meet him. A very big thank you to the people who have been in school today helping to set up for the event tonight. A lot of hard work goes into preparing for this type of event.

This week Mrs Lynch has been appointed Business Manager of a primary school in the North East, where she and Mr Lynch will be relocating in February. We would like to congratulate her on her new role but will be very sorry to see her go.

Next week is our week for Nativity plays. They are all looking amazing, you are in for a treat! Friday is our Christmas jumper and Christmas dinner day.

Have a great weekend

Mrs Adams
